Image: Popcorn #1 Edition of 8, 2017, Aluminum, Pearl Paint, 22" x 16" x 15"
Photography by: Rafael Venizian

THE TIME IS NOW - Meet the artist that has spent a lifetime transforming the physical into a representation of the essence of thought and universal beauty. You are cordially invited to attend an opening at The Caitlyn Gallery, located on the first floor of the luxury Angad Arts Hotel. The event will occur during The Grand Center Arts District's First Friday night and will feature the sculpture of internationally recognized artist Leon Bronstein.

Please join us for a memorable night as we welcome Bronstein's return to Saint Louis and celebrate with him the placement of his monumental sculpture "Sharing The Same Thoughts" in the permanent collection of The Saint Louis University Art Museum.

Image: Leon Bronstein at work in his studio Israel.
Photographty by: Ed Tadevossian

A wide selection of sculptures wll be available for purchase at the event.

Friday, October 7th 2022, 6p.m. - 9p.m.

Parking is available at the Angad Arts Hotel on the east side of the building at the corner of Grand Avenue and Samuel Shepard Drive.

A selection of catalogs that documents Bronstein's life, his working process, and his sculptures will be available for viewing at the event. Leon Bronstein will be at the gallery and will be available to meet and speak with guests about his work and to personally sign catalogs for collectors who purchase a sculpture.

If you would like to RSVP for the event please contact me at (314) 862-4200.

Michael B. Zolman
Executive Director
The Winter Family Collection
The Caitlyn Gallery
636 North Grand Boulevard, Saint Louis, MO. 63103 (314) 862.4200

The Caitlyn Gallery Online Catalog - https://www.caitlyngallery.com/catalog/https://www.thewinterfamilycollection.org/catalog/
Wikipedia - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Leon_Bronstein
Monument at SLUMA - https://www.thewinterfamilycollection.org/SharingTheSameThoughts/